*"Fascinating, wonderful music.
We love it!"*

- Bob Boilen, NPR

"Incredible talent, Wow!"

- Roz & Howard Larman, KPDK

"...unlike anything I've ever heard...incredible technique, so fluid, beautiful and sensitive, but kick-ass exciting!"

- Louis Jay Meyers, Folk
Alliance Intl., co-founder SXSW

"Very very Soulful and Inspiring"

- Maria Muldaur, recording artist

Surrounded by music from early childhood, Tim Weed is a highly creative concert musician, composer, songwriter, producer, and recording artist. His original music reflects his varied interests, world travels, and versatility as an acoustic, electric, and electronic multi-instrumentalist and singer of Americana, classical, jazz, world, & contemporary. His inspired concerts epitomize live music as spontaneous, exciting, fresh, and moving. He has 5 critically-acclaimed albums of original music, has performed for The Dalai Lama, and is regularly featured on NPR. He has made music with Joan Baez, Bill Medley, Maria Muldaur, Ramblin' Jack Elliott, David Grisman, MC Yogi, and The Dave Matthews Band. Tim is a former staff member of Commonwealth's Cancer Help Program and co-founder of the musical arts nonprofit, Sound Orchard.
